Fill in the gaps

American Rejects by The All

-So... tell me about your mother- (en algunas versiones)
Doctor, doctor, could you please just give me something
For the (1)_____ I'm in?
I'm having trouble and society believe
I got it wrong again
I'm one month (2)_____
I don't think I'm getting over my predicament
But if I jumped out of the window what would she say?
It's not on me, it's all on you
We can't deny the things we do
I can't believe her pretty feet
Walked over me, all over me
Help me, help me doctor
It seems to be an awful lot for me to understand
I know I'm not a specimen
The troubles and the mess I'm in
I should be dead
He said, let's all think
Then you've had all your fun
It's time to be a man
So you better quit your bitc*ing
Think about what the people would say
It's not on me, it's all on you
I can't prescribe what you want me to
You need some sleep, you better leave
He walked (3)_____ me, all over me
Wait until tomorrow, and it's gone
So long
Wait until tomorrow, so long
And it's gone
Wait until tomorrow
You beg and steal and borrow till it's gone
-He don't got a lot but he's got all he needs-
I need someone to love
-And all he's got well it's all that he needs-
(4)_____ help me because
I could (5)_____ the voices in the tube
To get me through anything
I do and anything will do good by me
A little pill, a little thrill
(6)_____ I take it? I think I will
And (7)_____ will do good so
As long as it's always too good
Either way I don't give a d*mn
What you people all say
All now boy
It's not on me, it's all on you
I can't deny the things I do
I can't believe her pretty feet
Walked over me, all over me
It's not on me, it's all on you
There comes a time to speak the truth
So you can see me when I leave
(8)_____ (9)_____ you, all over you yeah
