

Fill in the gaps

You never can tell (Pulp Fiction BSO) by Chuck Berry

It was a teenage wedding	The (15) tempo of the (16) fell
And the old folks wished them well	C'est la vie say the old folks,
You (1) see that Pierre	It goes to (17) you never can tell
Did truly (2) the mademoiselle	They (18) a souped-up jitney,
And now the young monsieur and (3)	It was a cherry red 53
Have (4) the chapel bell	And (19) it down to new orleans
C'est la vie say the old folks,	To celebrate (20) anniversary
It goes to show you (5) can tell	It was there (21) Pierre was wedded
They furnished off an apartment	To the lovely mademoiselle
With a two-room Roebuck sale	C'est la vie say the old folks,
The coolerator was crammed	It goes to show you never can tell
(6) tv dinners and ginger ale	They had a teenage wedding
And when Pierre (7) work,	And the old (22) (23) them well
The (8) money comin` worked out well	You could see that Pierre
C'est la vie say the old folks	Did truly love the mademoiselle
It (9) to (10) you (11) can	And now the young monsieur and madam
tell	Have rung the chapel bell
They had a hi-fi phono,	C'est la vie say the old folks,
Boy, did (12) let it blast	It goes to (24) you (25) can tell
Seven (13) (14) records,
All blues, rock, rhythm, and jazz
But when the sun went down,
