Hey ye, hey ye	(5) as simple as rock & roll would
Friends and roman country man	save us all
Hey ye, hey ye	Now who'd had thought, that after all
Punks and skins and journey man	It was rock & roll
Hey ye, hey ye	I (6) believe
My sisters and my brother and	-I still believe-
The time is coming near	In the saints
Come ye, come ye	Yes in Jerry Lee and Johnny and all the greats
To sole less corporate circus stops	And I still believe
Come ye, come ye	-I still believe-
To toilet circling touring stops	In the sound
Come ye, come ye	That has the power to raise a temple and tear it down
To bedrooms, bars and bunker swots	And I (7) believe
The sound is ringing clear	-I still believe-
Now who'd had thought, that after all	In the need
Something as simple as rock & roll would save us all	For guitars and drums and desperate poetry
Now who'd of thought, that after all	And I still believe
It is rock & roll	-I still believe-
Hey ye, hey ye	That everyone
Now (1) could take this stage	Can find a song for every time they've lost
Hey ye, hey ye	And every time they've won
And make miracles for minimum wage	Just remember folks we're not just saving lives
Hey ye, hey ye	We're saving souls
These folk (2) of the modern age	We're having fun
Will hold us all in their arms	And I still believe
Right here, right now	Now who'd had thought that after all
(3) brings his children home	Something as simple as (8) & roll (9)
Right here, right now	save us all
You never had to feel alone	Now who'd had thought, that after all
Right here, right now	Something so simple, something so small
Teenage (4) and grammar phones	Who'd had thought, (10) all
We hold them in our hearts	It's rock & roll
Now who'd had thought, that after all
