Chelsea Hotel No 2 by Lana del Rey

I remember you well in the Chelsea Hotel		But for me you would (6) an exception
You were (1)	so brave and so sweet	And clenching your fist for the ones like us
Giving me head on the (2) bed		Who are oppressed by the figures of beauty
While the limousines wait in the street		You (7) yourself, you said
(3) were the reasons and that was New York		"Well never mind, we are ugly but we have the music"
We were running for the money and the flesh		And you got away, didn't you baby?
And that was called love		You just turned your back on the crowd
For the workers in song		And you got away, I (8) once (9)
Probably still is for those of them left		you say
Ah, but you got away, didn't you baby?		I need you, I don't need you
You just (4) your back on the crowd		I need you, I don't need you
You got away, I never once heard you say		And all of that jiving around
I need you, I don't need you		I don't mean to suggest that I loved you the best
I (5) you, I dor	n't need you	I can't keep track of each fallen robin
And all of that jiving around		I remember you well in the Chelsea Hotel
I remember you well in the Chelsea Hotel		That's all, I don't even think of you that often
You were famous, your h	eart was a legend
