The hurt & the healer by MercyMe

Fill in the gaps

Why?	It's the moment when humanity
The question that is never far away	Is overcome by majesty
The healing (1) come from the	When grace is ushered in for good explained	And all our scars are understood
Jesus (2) don't let this go in vain	When mercy takes its rightful place
You're all I have	And all these questions fade away
All that remains	When out of the weakness we must bow
So here I am	And hear you say "It's over now"
What's left of me	I'm alive
Where glory meets my suffering	Even though a part of me has died
I'm alive	You take this heart and bring it back to life
(3) though a part of me has died	I've fallen into your arms open wide
You take my heart and bring it back to life	When the hurt and the healer collide
I've fallen into your arms open wide	Jesus come and break my fear
When the hurt and the healer collide	Awake my heart and take my tears
Breathe	Find your glory even here
Sometimes I feel (4) all that I can do	(8) the (9) and the healer collide
Pain's so (5) that I can hardly move	(10) come and break my fear
Just (6) my eyes completely fixed on you	Awake my heart and take my tears
Lord (7) hold and pull me through	Find your glory even here
So here I am	When the hurt and the healer collide
What's left of me	Jesus come and break my fear
Where glory meets my suffering	Awake my heart and take my tears
I'm alive	I find your glory even here
Even though a part of me has died
You take my heart and breathe it back to life
I've fallen into your arms open wide
When the hurt and the healer collide
