Hurricane by Bob Dylan

Fill in the gaps

Pistol shots ring out in the barroom nig	ıht
Enter Patty (1)	from the upper hall.
She sees the bartender in a pool of blood,
Cries out, 'My God, they've killed them all!'
Here comes the story of the Hurricane	,
The man the authorities (2)	to blame
For somethin' that he never done.
Put in a prison cell, but one time he co	uld-a been
The champion of the world.
Three bodies lyin' there does Patty see	e
And another man named Bello, movin'	around mysteriously.
'I didn't do it,' he says, and he throws u	up his hands
'I was only robbin' the register, I hope y	you understand.
I saw them leavin',' he says, and he sto	ops
'One of us had better call up the cops.'
And so Patty calls the cops
And they arrive on the scene with their	red lights flashin'
In the hot New Jersey night.
Meanwhile, far away in another part of	town
Rubin Carter and a couple of friends a	re drivin' around.
Number one contender for the middlev	veight crown
Had no idea what kinda shit was about	t to go down
When a cop pulled him over to the side	e of the road
Just like the time before and the time b	pefore that.
In Paterson that's just the way things g	go.
If you're black you might as well not sh	now up on the street
'Less you (3) draw the heat.
Alfred Bello had a (4)	_ and he had a rap for the cops.

Him and Arthur Dexter Bradley were just out prowlin' around

He said, 'I saw two men runnin' out, they looked like middleweights

They jumped into a white car with out-of-state plates.'
And Miss (5) just nodded her head.
Cop said, 'Wait a minute, boys, this one's not dead'
So they took him to the infirmary
And though this man could hardly see
They told him that he could identify the (7) men.
Four in the mornin' and they haul Rubin in,
Take him to the hospital and (8) bring him upstairs.
The wounded man looks up through his one dyin' eye
Says, 'Wha'd you bring him in here for? He ain't the guy!'
Yes, here's the story of the Hurricane,
The man the (9) came to blame
For somethin' that he never done.
Put in a prison cell, but one time he could-a been
The champion of the world.
Four months later, the ghettos are in flame,
Rubin's in South America, fightin' for his name
While Arthur Dexter Bradley's still in the robbery game
And the cops are puttin' the screws to him, lookin' for somebody to blame.
'Remember that murder that happened in a bar?'
'Remember you said you saw the getaway car?'
'You think you'd like to play ball with the law?'
'Think it might-a (10) that fighter that you saw runnin' that night?'
'Don't forget that you are white.'
Arthur (11) Bradley said, 'I'm really not sure.'
Cops said, 'A (12) boy like you could use a break
We got you for the (13) job and we're talkin' to your (14) Bello
Now you don't wanta have to go back to jail, be a nice fellow.
You'll be doin' society a favor.

That (15)_____ is brave and gettin' braver.

We want to put his ass in stir
We want to pin (16) triple murder on him
He ain't no Gentleman Jim.'
Rubin could take a man out (17) just one punch
But he never did like to talk about it all that much.
t's my work, he'd say, and I do it for pay
And when it's over I'd just as soon go on my way
Up to some paradise
Where the trout streams flow and the air is nice
And ride a horse along a trail.
But then they took him to the jail house
Where they try to turn a man (18) a mouse.
All of Rubin's cards were marked in advance
The trial was a pig-circus, he never had a chance.
The judge made Rubin's witnesses drunkards from the slums

Couldn't help but make me feel ashamed to live in a land

Now all the criminals in their (22) and their ties
Are free to drink martinis and (23) the sun rise
While Rubin sits like (24) in a ten-foot cell
An innocent man in a living hell.
That's the story of the Hurricane,
But it won't be over till (25) clear his name
And give him back the time he's done.
Put in a prison cell, but one time he could-a been
The (26) of the world.
