| How you can love                                      | Oh, Johnny!                               |
| Heavens above!  | (5) above, way above                      |
| You make my sad heart jump with joy                   | You make my sad (6) (7) with joy          |
| And when you're near                                  | And when you're (8)                       |
| I (1) can't sit (2) a minute                          | I just can't sit still another minute     |
| I'm so, oh, Johnny, oh, Johnny                        | Oh, Johnny                                |
| (3) tell me dear                                      | Oh, Johnny Johnny                         |
| What makes me love you so?                            | Please tell me dear                       |
| You're not handsome, it's true                        | What makes me love you so?                |
| But (4) I look at you                                 | You're not handsome, it's true            |
| I just, oh, Johnny, oh, Johnny                        | But when I (9) at you                     |
| All the girls are crazy about a certain little lad    | I just, oh, Johnny oh Johnny oh           |
| Although he's very very bad                           | Oh Johnny! Please tell me dear            |
| He could be oh so good when he wanted to              | Oh Johnny dear what makes me love you so? |
| Bad or good he understood about love and other things | You're not (10) it is true                |
| For every girl in town followed him around            | But when I look at you                    |
| just to hold his hand and sing               | I still oh, Johnny, oh, Johnny, oh        |
| Oh, Johnny!   |   |
| Oh, Johnny, oh Johnny!                                |   |
