Fill in the gaps

If you ever come back by The Script

f you're standing with your suitcase	That you haven't taken
But you can't step on the train	And I wish you could give me the cold shoulder
Everything's the way that you left it	And I wish you can still give me a hard time still haven't slept yet	And I wish I could still wish it was over
And if you're covering your face now	But even if wishing is a waste of time
But you (1) can't hide the pain	(5) if I never cross your mind
Still setting two plates on the counter	I'll leave the door on the latch
But (2) without you	If you ever come back, if you ever come back f the truth is you're a liar	There'll be a (6) in the hall and the key under
Then just say that you're okay	the mat
'm sleeping on your side of the bed	If you ever come back
Going out of my head now	There'll be a smile on my face and the kettle on
And if you're up and trying to move on	And it will be just like you were never gone
But something pulls you back again	There'll be a light in the hall and the key under the mat
'm sitting here trying to persuade you	If you ever come back, if you ever come back now
Like you're in the same room	Oh, if you ever come back, if you ever come back
And I wish you could give me the cold shoulder	If it's the fighting you remember
And I wish you could (3) give me a har	ne Or the little things you miss
And I wish I could still wish it was over	I know you're out there somewhere
But even if wishing is a waste of time	So just remember this
Even if I never cross your mind	If it's the fighting you remember
'll leave the (4) on the latch	Or the little things you miss
f you ever come back, if you ever come back	Oh just remember this, oh just remember this There'll be a light in the hall and the key under the m	I'll (7) the door on the latch
f you ever come back	If you ever come back, if you (8) come back
There'll be a smile on my face and the kettle on	There'll be a light in the hall and the key under the mat
And it will be just like you were never gone	If you ever come back
There'll be a light in the hall and the key under the m	There'll be a smile on my face and the kettle on
f you ever come back, if you ever come back know	And it will be (9) like you were never gone
Oh if you ever come back, if you ever come back	There'll be a light in the hall and the key under the mat
Now they say I'm wasting my time	If you ever come back, if you ever come back now
Because you're never coming home	Oh, if you ever come back, if you ever come back
But they used to say the world was flat	And it will be just like you were never gone
But how wrong was that now?	And it will be just like you were never gone
And by leaving my door open	And it will be just like you were never gone
'm risking everything I own	If you ever come back, if you ever come back know There's nothing I can lose in a break-in
