TEACHER JASON SMITH	It was a shame how he carried on
"Rasputin"	[Spoken:]
There lived a certain man in Russia long ago	But when his (4) and lusting and his
He was big and strong, in his eyes a flaming glow	hunger
Most people (1) at him with terror and with	for power became known to (5) and more people,
fear	the demands to do something about this outrageous
But to Moscow chicks he was such a lovely dear	man became louder and louder.
He could preach the bible like a preacher	"This man's just got to go!" (6) his
Full of ecstacy and fire	enemies
But he also was the kind of teacher	But the ladies begged "Don't you try to do it, please"
Women would desire	No doubt this Rasputin had lots of hidden charms
RA RA RASPUTIN	Though he was a brute they just fell (7) his arms
Lover of the Russian queen	Then one night (8) men of higher standing
There was a cat (2) really was gone	Set a trap, they're not to blame
RA RA RASPUTIN	"Come to visit us" they kept demanding
Russia's (3) love machine	And he really came
It was a shame how he carried on	RA RA RASPUTIN
He ruled the Russian land and never mind the Czar	Lover of the Russian queen
But the kasachok he danced really wunderbar	They put some poison into his wine
In all affairs of state he was the man to please	RA RA RASPUTIN
But he was real great when he had a girl to squeeze	Russia's (9) love machine
For the queen he was no wheeler dealer	He drank it all and he said "I feel fine"
Though she'd heard the things he'd done	RA RA RASPUTIN
She believed he was a holy healer	Lover of the Russian queen
Who would heal her son	They didn't quit, they wanted his head
RA RA RASPUTIN	RA RA RASPUTIN
Lover of the Russian queen	Russia's greatest love machine
There was a cat that really was gone	And so they shot him till he was dead
RA RA RASPUTIN	[Spoken:] Oh, those Russians
Russia's greatest love machine
