TEACHER JASON SMITH	It was a shame how he carried on
"Rasputin"	[Spoken:]
There lived a certain man in Russia long ago	But when his (4) and lusting and his
He was big and strong, in his eyes a flaming glow	hunger
Most people looked at him with terror and with fear	for power became known to more and more people,
But to Moscow chicks he was such a lovely dear	the demands to do something about this outrageous
He could preach the bible like a preacher	man became (5) and louder.
Full of ecstacy and fire	"This man's just got to go!" declared his enemies
But he also was the kind of teacher	But the ladies begged "Don't you try to do it, please"
Women (1) desire	No doubt this (6) had lots of hidden
RA RA RASPUTIN	charms
Lover of the Russian queen	Though he was a brute they just fell into his arms
There was a cat that really was gone	Then one (7) some men of (8)
RA RA RASPUTIN	standing
Russia's greatest love machine	Set a trap, they're not to blame
It was a shame how he carried on	"Come to visit us" (9) kept demanding
He ruled the Russian land and never mind the Czar	And he really came
But the kasachok he danced really wunderbar	RA RA RASPUTIN
In all (2) of state he was the man to please	Lover of the Russian queen
But he was (3) great when he had a girl to squeeze	They put some poison into his wine
For the queen he was no wheeler dealer	RA RA RASPUTIN
Though she'd heard the things he'd done	Russia's greatest love machine
She believed he was a holy healer	He drank it all and he said "I feel fine"
Who would heal her son	RA RA RASPUTIN
RA RA RASPUTIN	Lover of the Russian queen
Lover of the Russian queen	They didn't quit, they wanted his head
There was a cat that really was gone	RA RA RASPUTIN
RA RA RASPUTIN	Russia's greatest love machine
Russia's greatest love machine	And so they shot him till he was dead
