

Russia's greatest love machine

Fill in the gaps

TEACHER JASON SMITH	It was a shame how he carried on
"Rasputin"	[Spoken:]
There lived a certain man in Russia long ago	But when his drinking and lusting and his hunger
He was big and strong, in his eyes a flaming glow	for power became known to more and more people,
Most people looked at him with terror and with fear	the demands to do something about this outrageous
But to (1) chicks he was such a lovely dear	man became louder and louder.
He could preach the bible like a preacher	"This man's just got to go!" declared his enemies
Full of ecstacy and fire	But the (7) begged "Don't you try to do it
But he also was the kind of teacher	please"
Women would desire	No doubt this Rasputin had lots of hidden charms
RA RA RASPUTIN	Though he was a brute they just (8) into his arms
Lover of the Russian queen	Then one night some men of higher standing
There was a cat that really was gone	Set a trap, they're not to blame
RA RA RASPUTIN	"Come to visit us" they kept demanding
Russia's greatest love machine	And he really came
It was a shame how he carried on	RA RA RASPUTIN
He (2) the Russian land and (3)	Lover of the Russian queen
mind the Czar	They put some poison into his wine
But the kasachok he danced really wunderbar	RA RA RASPUTIN
In all affairs of state he was the man to please	Russia's greatest love machine
But he was real great when he had a girl to squeeze	He drank it all and he said "I feel fine"
For the (4) he was no wheeler dealer	RA RA RASPUTIN
Though she'd heard the things he'd done	Lover of the Russian queen
She believed he was a (5) healer	They didn't quit, they wanted his head
Who would heal her son	RA RA RASPUTIN
RA RA RASPUTIN	Russia's greatest (9) machine
Lover of the (6) queen	And so they shot him till he was dead
There was a cat that really was gone	[Spoken:] Oh, those Russians
