		Use them and let's start trying
I must've dreamed a (1)	dreams	To make it a place worth living in.
Been haunted by a million screams		I remember long ago -
I can hear the marching feet		When the sun was shining
They're moving into the street.		The stars were bright
Now did you (2) the news today		All through the night
They say the danger's (3) away		And the sound of your laughter
But I can see the fire's still alight		As I held you tight
Burning (4) the night.		So long ago -
Too many men		I won't be coming (7) tonight
Too many people		My generation will put it right
Making too many problems		We're not just making promises
And not much love to go round		That we know, we'll never keep.
Can't you see		Too many men
This is a land of confusion.		Too many people
This is the world we live in		Making too many problems
And these are the hands we're given		And not much love to go round
Use them and let's (5) trying		Can't you see
To make it a place worth living in.		This is a land of confusion.
Superman where are you now		This is the (8) we (9)
Everything's gone wrong somehow		And these are the hands we're given
The men of steel, men of power		Use them and let's start trying
Are losing control by the hour.		To make it a place worth fighting for.
This is the time		This is the world we (10) in
This is the place		And these are the names we're given
So we look for the future		Stand up and let's start showing
But there's not much love to go round		Just where our lives are going to Tell me why, this is a land of confusion.
This is the world we live in
And (6) are the hands we're give	/en
