"What do I do next?" said the bishop to the priest,
"I have spent my whole (1) waiting, preparing for the feast,
And now you say Jerusalem has (2) and is lost,
The (3) of heathen Saracen has seized the holy cross;"
Then the priest (4) "Oh my bishop, we must put them to the sword,
For God in all His mercy will find a (5) reward,
For the noblemen and sinners, and knights of ready hand,
Who will be the Lord's Crusader, send word through all the land,
Jerusalem is lost,
Jerusalem is lost,
Jerusalem is lost;"
"Tell me what to do", said the king upon his throne,
"but speak to me in whispers for we are not alone,
They tell me (6) Jerusalem has fallen to the hand,
Of some bedevilled eastern Heathen who has seized the

Then the chamberlain said "Lord, we must call upon our foes
In Spain and France and Germany to end our bitter wars,
All Christian men must be as one and gather for the fight,
You (8) be (9) leader,
You (8) be (9) leader, (10) the battle cry,

They fell to their knees and prayed for her release;
They started the battle at dawn, taking the city by storm,
With horsemen and bowmen and engines of war,

They broke through the city walls,
The Heathens were flying and screaming and dying,
And the Christian swords were strong,
And Saladin ran when he heard their (14)
song;
"We are invincible, God is the king,
We are invincible, and we (15) win!"
"What do I do now?" said the (16) man to the fool,
"I have spent my whole life searching, to find the Golden Rule, Though centuries have disappeared, the memory still remains,
Of those enemies together, (17) it be

Then the fool said "Oh you wise men, you really

With your talk of vast persuasion and searching through the past,
There is only greed and evil in the men who fight today,
The song of the Crusader has long since gone away,
