Just Another Birthday by Casting Crowns

Sixteen finds me	But it's just (18) birthday
Blowing out (1) and (2)	And I'm not fine
wishes	I'm not fine
And all around me	In the company of strangers
Is (3) but the one I'm wishing for	In a cold and sterile room
And he sent me flowers	All alone with a child (19) me
And gift-wrapped excuses	And I don't know (20) to do
From a (4) (5) daughter	Jesus, can You hear me
Wants to see him again	Come and heal my brokennes
And I know, I know	Put the pieces back together
It's (6) another birthday	And be a Father to the fatherless
But I guess I thought	A Father to the fatherless
This would be the one	Twenty-one finds me
When he would call me, see me	Blowing out (21) and (22)
Hold me and free me	wishes
But it's (7) another birthday	And all around me
And I'll be fine	My barefoot princess twirls and sings
I'll be fine	It's so amazing
Nineteen finds me	Looking (23) at all God's brought us through
And I'm wild-eyed and wide open	You are my happy birthday
I (8) myself away to love	And you were (24) to break the chains
But (9) promises (10)	Now I know, I know
(11) a mist	It's not just another birthday
I'm screaming at the midnight air	'Cause I'm here, she's here
Everyone hears me but I don't care	And look how far we've come
My heart's (12) just (13) a fist	Since you've (25) me, saw me
'Cause, people, I didn't ask for any of this	Held me and freed me
And I know, I know	Thank you (26) for (27) birthday
It's (14) birthday	And we'll be fine
But I (16) I thought	We'll be fine
This (17) be the one
