My Guardian Angel by Place Vendome

I've got the strange feeling		Could everything be a dream?
That I am never (1)	_ alone	Guarding my heart, protecting my soul
I can feel her eyes follow me		There is a guardian angel here
Wherever I go, she (2)	always know	She is watching over me
Suddenly I'm awake		Healing my wound, guiding me home
There is no one here all is (3)	here	There is a guardian angel here
Maybe it's a mistake		She is (5) me alive
Could everything be a dream?		My guardian angel
Guarding my heart, protecting my soul		Suddenly I'm awake
There is a guardian angel here		There is no one here all is empty here
She is watching over me		Maybe it's a mistake
Healing my wound, guiding me home		Could everything be a dream?
There is a (4)	angel here	Guarding my heart, protecting my soul
She is keeping me alive		There is a (6) angel here
My guardian angel		She is watching (7) me
I'm looking in the mirror		Healing my wound, guiding me home
I can only see a stranger's face		There is a guardian angel here
Who am I turning into?		She is (8) me alive
Save me now, before it is too late		My guardian angel
Suddenly I'm awake
There is no one here all is empty h	here
