

Fill in the gaps

Thursday night, everything's fine	And I know that I should let go, but I can't
Except you've got that (1) in your eye	And every time we fight I know it's not right
When I'm telling a story, and you find it boring	Every time that you're upset and I smile
You're thinking of something to say	I know I should forget, but I can't
You'll go along with it, then drop it	Your face is pastey
And humiliate me in front of our friends	'Cause you've gone and got so wasted
Then I'll use that voice that you find annoying	What a surprise
And say something like,	Don't want to look at your face, 'cause it's (6)
"Yeah, intelligent input, darling.	me sick
Why don't you just have another beer then?"	You've gone and got sick on my trainers
Then you'll call me a bitch	I only got these yesterday
And everyone we're with (2) be embarrassed	Oh my gosh, I cannot be bothered with this
And I won't give a shit	Well, I'll leave you there 'till the morning
My fingertips are holding onto	And I purposely won't turn the heating on
The cracks in our foundation	And dear God, I hope I'm not (7) with this one
And I know that I should let go, but I can't	My fingertips are holding onto
And every (3) we fight I know it's not right	The cracks in our foundation
Every time that you're upset and I smile	And I know that I (8) let go, but I can't
I (4) I should forget, but I can't	And (9) (10) we fight I know it's not
You said I must eat so many lemons	right
'Cause I am so bitter	Every time that you're upset and I smile
I said, "I'd rather be with your friends, mate,	I know I should forget, but I can't
'Cause they are much fitter."	And every time we fight I know it's not right
Yes, it was childish	Every time that you're upset and I smile
And you got aggressive	I know I should forget, but I can't
And I must admit that I was a bit scared	And every time we fight I know it's not right
But it gives me (5) to wind you up	Every time that you're upset and I smile
My fingertips are holding onto	I know I should forget, but I can't
