City On The Hill by Casting Crowns

It was the fire of the young ones

Fill in the gaps

Did you hear of the city on a hill?	It was the wisdom of the old
Said one old man to the other	It was the story of the poor man
t once (1) bright and it would be shining still	That needed be told
But they all (2) turning on each other	It is the rhythm of the dancers
You see the poets thought the dancers were shallow	That gives the poets life
And the soldiers thought the poets were weak	It is the spirit of the poets
And the elders saw the young ones as foolish	That gives the soldiers strength to fight
And the rich man never (3) the poor man speak	It is the fire of the young ones
And one by one they ran away	It is the wisdom of the old
With (4) made up minds to leave it all behind	It is the story of the (9) man
And the light began to fade	That's needing to be told
In the city on a hill	One by one, will we run away?
The city on a hill	With our made up minds to leave it all behind
Each one thought (5) they knew better	As the light begins to fade
But there (6) different by design	In the (10) on a hill?
Instead of standing strong together	One by one, will we run away?
They let their differences divide	With our made up minds to leave it all behind
And one by one they ran away	As the light begins to fade
With their made up minds to leave it all behind	In the city on a hill?
And the light began to fade	The city on a hill
In the city on a hill	Come home
The (7) on a hill	And the Father's calling still
And the world is searchin' still	Come home
But it was the rhythm of the dancers	To the city on the hill
That (8) the poets life	Come home
It was the spirit of the poets
That gave the soldiers strength to fight
