Tangled Up In Blue (Live) by Bob Dylan

Early one morning, the sun was shinin	She was working in a topless place
She was layin' in bed	And I stopped in for a beer
Wondering if she'd changed it all	I just kept looking at the sight of her face
If her hair was still red	In the spotlight so clear
Her folks (1) said their lives together	And later on when the (12)
Sure was gonna be rough	(13) out
They (2) did like mama's homemade dress	I was (14) about to do the same
Papa's bankbook wasn't big enough	She was standing there (15) beside my chair
And he was standing on the side of the road	Said, "Don't tell me, let me guess your name?"
Rain (3) on my shoes	l (16) (17)
Heading out for the (4) coast	underneath my breath
Lord knows he's paid some dues	She (18) the lines on my face
Getting through	I (19) admit I felt a little uneasy
Tangled up in blue	When she bent (20) to tie the laces of my shoe
She was married when they first met	Tangled up in blue
Soon to be divorced	I lived with (21) on Montague Street
He helped her out of a jam, I guess	In a basement down the stairs
But he used a little too much force	There was music in the cafes at night
And they drove that car as far as they could	And (22) in the air
Abandoned it out west	Then he (23) into dealing (24)
Split up on a dark, sad night	slaves
Both agreeing it was best	And something inside of him died
And she turned (5) to look at him	She had to sell everything she owned
As he was walking away	And froze up inside
Saying (6) his shoulder	And when it all came crashing down
"We'll meet (7) (8) on the	I became withdrawn avenue"	The (25) thing I (26) how to do
Tangled up in blue	Was to keep on keeping on like a bird that flew
He had a job in Santa Fe	Tangled up in blue
Working in an old hotel	So now I'm going back again
But he never did (9) it all (10) much	I got to get her somehow
And one day it (11) went to hell	All the (27) we used to know
So he drifted down to New Orleans	They're an illusion to me now
Lucky not to be destroyed	Some are mathematicians
Well he got him a job on a fishing boat	Some are carpenter's wives
Right outside of Delacroix	Don't know how it all got started
But all the while he was alone	I don't what they do with their lives
The past was close behind	But me, I'm (28) on the road
He seen a lot of women	Heading for another joint
But she never escaped his mind	We always did feel the same
And he just grew	We just saw it from a different point of view
Tangled up in blue	Tangled up in blue
