Barely Breathing by Duncan Sheik

Fill in the gaps

I know (1) you're doing	'Cause I am (6) breathing
I see it all too clear	And I can't find the air
I only taste the saline	I don't know who I'm kidding
When I kiss away your tears	Imagining you care
You really had me going	And I could (7) here waiting
Wishing on a star	A fool for another day
But the black holes that surround you	I don't suppose it's worth the price
Are heavier by far	It's worth the price, the price that I would pay
I believed in your confusion	But I'm thinking it over anyway
You were so (2) torn	I'm thinking it over anyway
It must have (3) that yesterday	I've come to find
Was the day that I was born	I may never know
There's not much to examine	Your changing mind
There's nothing left to hide	Is it friend or foe
You really can't be serious	I rise above
If you have to ask me why	Or sink below
I say good-bye	With every time
'Cause I am barely breathing	You come and go
And I can't find the air	Please don't
I don't know who I'm kidding	Come and go
Imagining you care	'Cause I am barely breathing
And I could stand here waiting	And I can't find the air
A (4) for another day	I don't know who I'm kidding
I don't suppose it's worth the price	Imagining you care
It's worth the price, the price that I would pay	And I could stand here waiting
Everyone keeps asking	A (8) for another day
What's it all about	I don't suppose it's worth the price
I used to be so certain	It's worth the price, the price (9) I would pay
And I can't figure out	But I'm thinking it over anyway
What is this attraction	I'm thinking it (10) anyway
I only feel the pain	I know what you're doing
Nothing left to reason	I see it all too clear
And (5) you to blame
Will it ever change
