Not The American Average by Asking Alexandria

1, 2, 3, 4	You stupid ****** *****
Come on baby	And after all of all my dreaming being only you
Keep it down, honey hush your lips	You're standing there baby
Clothes trailing (1) the backdoor	(Oh) the things that I could do
To the bedroom	Back to the wall with a drink in my hand
And I don't even know your name	Back it up, baby ride, ride, ride
Give me all you've got
Make this night worth my time	One step too late
Make this worth my time	And I (7) told you (never told you)
(Oh ) what I would give to live this night again	That I can't (8) (9)
I knew when I (2) saw you	disappointment
You'd (3) like a 	Breathing and grasping
You'd * like a 	All leads to another messy ending
I can hear you (4) for more	Breathing and grasping
Your thighs (5) made for cheeks to graze	All leads to another messy ending
My lips, your poison	(Dead end)
They bring you down to your knees	With your back against the wall
Your thighs were (6) for cheeks to graze	With your (10) buried in the pillow
My lips, your poison	I see you cold, I feel you heartless
They bring you down to your knees	, you stupid ******
(Oh, come on)	You stupid ****** ****
Girl get down	****** ****
It's almost over
Take it all the way (oh)
