Over The Hills And Far Away by Gary Moore

They came for him one winter's night.	back in her arms again he'll be.
Arrested, he was bound.	Over the hills and far away.
They said there'd (1) a robbery,	Over the hills and,
his (2) had (3) found.	over the hills and,
They marched him to the station house,	over the hills and far away.
he waited till the dawn.	Each (8) within his prison cell,
And as they led him to the dock,	he looks out through the bars.
he (4) (5) he'd been wronged.	He reads the (9) that she wrote.
"You stand accused of robbery,"	One day he'll know the taste of freedom.
he heard the bailiff say.	Over the hills and far away,
He knew without an alibi,	she prays he will return one day.
tomorrow's light (6) his	As sure as the rivers reach the seas,
freedom.	back in his arms (10) she'll be.
Over the hills and far away,	Over the hills and far away,
for ten long years he'll count the days.	he swears he will return one day.
Over the mountains and the seas,	As sure as the river reach the seas,
a prisoner's life for him there'll be.	back in his arms is where she'll be.
He knew that it would cost him dear,	Over the hills and far away,
but yet he dare not say.	she prays he will return one day.
Just where he'd been that fateful night,	As sure as the rivers reach the sea,
a secret it must stay.	back in her arms is where he'll be.
He had to fight back tears of rage.	Over the hills,
His heart beat like a drum.	over the hills and far away.
For with the wife of his best friend,	Over the hills,
he spent his final night of freedom.	over the hills and far away.
