A Whiter Shade Of Pale by Procol Harum

We skipped a (1) fandango	As the (12) told his tale
Turned cartwheels 'cross the floor	That her face, at (13) just ghostly
I was feeling kind of seasick	Turned a (14) shade of pale
(But the) (2) called out for more	She said there is no reason
The room was (3) harder	And the truth is plain to see
As the ceiling flew away	But I wandered through my (15) cards
When we called out for another drink	Would not let her be
The waiter brought a tray	One of (16) vestal virgins
And so it was (4) later	Who were (17) for the coast
As the miller told his tale	At the (18) my eyes (19) open
That her face at (5) just ghostly	They (20) just as well have (21)
Turned a whiter (6) of pale	closed
She said, I'm home on (7) leave	And so it was that later
Though in truth we were at sea	As the miller told his tale
So I took her by the looking glass	That her face at (22) just ghostly
And (8) not let her be	Turned a (23) shade of pale
Saying, you must be the mermaid	And so it was that later
Who (9) for a ride	As the miller (24) his tale
But she (11) at me so sadly	That her face at (25) just ghostly
That my anger straightway died	Turned a whiter shade of pale
And so it was that later
