Jack And Diane by John Cougar Mellencamp

A little ditty about Jack and Diane		And Jackie say uh
Two (1)	kids growin' up in the heartland	Oh yeah, life (8) on
Jackie gonna be a football star		Long after the thrill of livin' is gone
Diane's a debutante, backseat of Jackie's car		Oh yeah, they say life goes on Suckin' on a chili dog outside the Tastee-Freez		Long after the thrill of livin' is gone
Diane's sittin' on Jackie's lap		Gonna let it rock
He's got his hands between her knees		Let it roll
Jackie say "Hey Diane, let's run off behind the shady trees.		Let the Bible Belt come and save my soul
Dribble off those (2)	Brooks, let me do what I	Hold on to sixteen as long as you can please."		Changes come around real soon
And say uh		Make us women and men
Oh yeah, life goes on		Oh yeah, life goes on Long after the (3)	of livin' is gone,	Long after the thrill of livin' is gone
(4) say uh		Oh yeah, (9) say life goes on
Oh yeah, (5) goes on		Long after the thrill of livin' is gone
Long after the thrill of livin' is gone, they (6) on		A little ditty about Jack and Diane
Jackie sits back collects his thoughts for the moment		Two American kids doin' the best they can Scratches his head and does his best James Dean
"Well then (7) Diane, we oughtta run off to the city."
Diane says, "Baby, you ain't missin' nothing."
