Outlaw Pete by Bruce Springsteen

He was born a little baby on the Appalachian Trail	He said, "Pete, you think you've changed, but you have not."
At six months old he'd done three months in jail	He cocked his pistol, pulled the trigger
He robbed a bank in his diapers and his little bare	And shouted "let it start"
(1) feet	Pete drew a knife from his boot, threw it,
All he said was "Folks, my name is Outlaw Pete."	And pierced Dan through the heart
I'm Outlaw Pete!	Dan smiled as he laid in his own blood dying in the sun
I'm Outlaw Pete!	And whispered in Pete's ear,
Can you (2) me?	"We (6) undo these things we've done."
At twenty-five a mustang pony he did steal	You're Outlaw Pete!
And they rode around and 'round on heaven's wheel	You're (7) Pete!
Father Jesus, I'm an outlaw killer and a thief	Can you hear me?
And I slow down only to sow my grief	Can you hear me?
I'm Outlaw Pete!	Can you hear me?
I'm Outlaw Pete!	For forty days and nights Pete rode and did not stop
Can you hear me?	Till he sat high upon an icy mountain top
They cut his trail of tears (3) the countryside	He watched the hawk on a (8) updraft slip and
And where he went, women wept and men died	slide
One night he woke from a vision of his own death	Moved to the edge and dug his spurs deep into his pony side
Saddled his pony and rode her deep into the West	Some say Pete and his pony vanished over the edge
Married a Navajo girl and settled down on the res	Some say they remain frozen high upon that icy ledge
And as the (4) (5) he held	The young Navajo girl washes in the river, skin so fair
That beautiful daughter to his chest	And braids a piece of Pete's buckskin chaps (9)
I'm Outlaw Pete!	her hair
I'm Outlaw Pete!	Outlaw Pete!
Can you hear me?	Outlaw Pete!
Can you hear me?	Can you hear me?
Can you hear me?	Can you hear me?
Out of the East on an Irish stallion came Bounty Hunter Dan	Can you (10) me?
His heart quickened and burned by the need to get his man
