

Now who'd had thought, that after all

Fill in the gaps

Hey ye, hey ye	Something as simple as rock & roll would save us all
Friends and (1) country man	Now who'd had thought, that after all
Hey ye, hey ye	It was rock & roll
Punks and skins and journey man	I still believe
Hey ye, hey ye	-I still believe-
My sisters and my brother and	In the saints
The time is coming near	Yes in Jerry Lee and Johnny and all the greats
Come ye, come ye	And I still believe
To sole less corporate circus stops	-I still believe-
Come ye, come ye	In the sound
To toilet circling touring stops	(7) has the power to raise a temple and tear it
Come ye, come ye	down
To bedrooms, (2) and bunker swots	And I still believe
The sound is (3) clear	-I still believe-
Now who'd had thought, that after all	In the need
Something as simple as rock & roll would save us all	For guitars and drums and desperate poetry
Now who'd of thought, that (4) all	And I still believe
It is rock & roll	-I still believe-
Hey ye, hey ye	That everyone
Now anybody could take this stage	Can find a song for every (8) they've lost
Hey ye, hey ye	And every time they've won
And make miracles for (5) wage	Just remember (9) we're not just saving lives
Hey ye, hey ye	We're saving souls
These folk songs of the modern age	We're having fun
Will hold us all in their arms	And I still believe
Right here, right now	Now who'd had thought that after all
Elvis brings his (6) home	Something as simple as rock & roll would save us all
Right here, right now	Now who'd had thought, that after all
You never had to feel alone	Something so simple, something so small
Right here, right now	Who'd had thought, after all
Teenage kicks and grammar phones	It's (10) & roll
We hold them in our hearts
