Everytime I said I'm too hard to love	Want to come around
But tonight it's different	I want you right now
I can feel the summer coming on	I want you right now
And I stopped listening to this little	And you don't know how
Voice inside my brain	My heart is breaking down
Never mind too much fight	And the lights went out
Too much fight, too much	Would you come around?
Want to come around	Would you take me out?
I want you right now	Come around, come around
