"What do I do next?" (1) the bishop to the priest,
"I have spent my whole life waiting, preparing for the feast,
And now you say Jerusalem has fallen and is lost,
The king of heathen Saracen has seized the holy cross;"
Then the priest said "Oh my bishop, we must put them to the sword,
For God in all His (2) will find a just reward,
For the noblemen and sinners, and knights of ready hand,
Who will be the Lord's Crusader, send word through all the land,
Jerusalem is lost,
Jerusalem is lost,
Jerusalem is lost;"
"Tell me what to do", said the king (3) his throne,
"but speak to me in whispers for we are not alone,
They tell me that Jerusalem has fallen to the hand,
Of some bedevilled eastern Heathen who has seized the
(4) Land;"
Then the chamberlain said "Lord, we must call upon our foes In Spain and France and Germany to end our
(5) wars,
All Christian men must be as one and gather for the fight,
You will be their leader, begin the battle cry,
Jerusalem is lost,
Jerusalem is lost,
Jerusalem is lost"
Ooh, high on a hill, in the (6) of Jerusalem,
There stood Saladin, the king of the Saracens, Whoring and (7) and snoring and

They broke through the city walls,
The Heathens were (12) and screaming and dying,
And the Christian swords were strong,
And (13) ran when he heard their victory song;
"We are invincible, God is the king,
We are invincible, and we will win!"
"What do I do now?" said the wise man to the fool,
"I have spent my whole life searching, to find the Golden Rule, Though centuries have disappeared, the (14)
still remains,
Of (15) (16) together, could it be that way again?"
Then the fool said "Oh you wise men, you really make me laugh,
With (17) talk of vast (18) and (19) (20) the
past,
There is only greed and evil in the men who fight today,
The song of the Crusader has long since gone away,
Jerusalem is lost,
Jerusalem is lost,
Jerusalem is lost
They started the battle at dawn, taking the city by storm, With (21) and bowmen and engines of war,
They broke through the city walls,
The Heathens were flying and screaming and dying,
And the Christian (22) were strong,
And (23) ran when he heard
(24) victory song;
"We are invincible, God is the king,
We are invincible, and we will win!"
"What do I do now?" said the (25) man to the fool,
"I have spent my whole life searching, to find the Golden Rule,
Though centuries have disappeared, the memory still remains,
Of those enemies together, could it be that way again?"
Then the fool said "Oh you wise men, you (26)
make me laugh,
With your talk of vast persuasion and searching through the
past,
There is only greed and evil in the men who fight today,
The song of the Crusader has long (27) gone away,
Jerusalem is lost,
Jerusalem is lost

Jerusalem is lost... Jerusalem."
