The Sound of Silence by Simon and Garfunkel

Hello, darkness, my old friend	People (8) without listening
I've (1) to talk with you again	People writing songs that (9)
Because a (2) softly creeping	(10) share
Left its (3) while I was sleeping	And no one dare
And the vision	Disturb the sound of silence.
That was planted in my brain	"Fools," (11) I, "you do not know
Still remains	Silence like a cancer grows."
Within the sound of silence	"Hear my (12) that I might teach you,
In (4) dreams I walked alone	Take my (13) that I might (14) you
Narrow (5) of cobblestone	But my words like (15)
Beneath the halo of a street lamp	(16) fell,
I turned my collar to the cold and damp	And (17) in the (18) of silence
When my eyes (6) stabbed	And the (19) bowed and prayed
By the (7) of a neon light	To the neon god they made.
That split the night	And the sign flashed out its warning
And touched the sound of silence	In the (20) it was forming.
And in the naked light I saw	And the signs said: "The (22) of the prophets
Ten thousand people, maybe more	Are written on the (23) walls
People talking without speaking	And tenement halls,
	And whisper'd in the sound of silence.
