

Fill in the gaps

| He's just the kind of man            | Carry me to the shoreline            |
|--------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| You (1) about                        | Bury me in the sand                  |
| Who leaves his family for            | Walk me across the water             |
| An easy out                          | And maybe you'll understand          |
| They never saw the signs             | Once the stone                       |
| He never said a word                 | You're crawling under                |
| He couldn't take another day         | Is (5) off (6) shoulders             |
| Carry me to the shoreline            | Once the (7) that's raining          |
| Bury me in the sand                  | Over your head disappears            |
| Walk me across the water             | The noise that you'll hear           |
| And maybe you'll understand          | Is the crashing down of hollow years |
| Once the stone                       | Carry me to the shoreline            |
| You're crawling under                | Maybe you'll understand              |
| Is lifted off your shoulders         | Once the stone                       |
| Once the cloud that's raining        | You're crawling under                |
| Over (2) head disappears             | Is lifted off your shoulders         |
| The noise that you'll hear           | Once the cloud that's raining        |
| Is the crashing down of hollow years | Over your head disappears            |
| She's not the kind of girl           | The noise that you'll hear           |
| You hear about                       | Is the crashing down of (8) years    |
| She'll (3) want another              | Once the stone                       |
| She'll never be without              | You're crawling under                |
| She'll (4) you all the signs         |                                      |
| She'll tell you everything           |                                      |
| Then turn around and walk away       |                                      |
