My Guardian Angel by Place Vendome

I've got the strange feeling	Could everything be a dream?
That I am never really alone	Guarding my heart, protecting my soul
I can feel her eyes (1) me	There is a guardian angel here
Wherever I go, she (2) always know	She is watching (6) me
Suddenly I'm awake	Healing my wound, guiding me home
There is no one here all is empty here	There is a guardian angel here
Maybe it's a mistake	She is keeping me alive
Could everything be a dream?	My guardian angel
Guarding my heart, protecting my soul	Suddenly I'm awake
There is a (3) angel here	There is no one here all is empty here
She is watching (4) me	Maybe it's a mistake
Healing my wound, guiding me home	Could (7) be a dream?
There is a guardian angel here	Guarding my heart, protecting my soul
She is keeping me alive	There is a guardian angel here
My guardian angel	She is watching (8) me
I'm looking in the mirror	Healing my wound, guiding me home
I can only see a stranger's face	There is a guardian angel here
Who am I turning into?	She is keeping me alive
Save me now, before it is too late	My (9) angel
Suddenly I'm awake
