My Guardian Angel by Place Vendome

I've got the strange feeling		Could everything be a dream?
That I am never (1) alone	e	Guarding my heart, (8)
I can feel her (2) (3)	me	There is a guardian angel here
Wherever I go, she will (4)	_ know	She is watching over me
Suddenly I'm awake		Healing my wound, (9) m
There is no one here all is empty here		There is a guardian (10) here
Maybe it's a mistake		She is keeping me alive
Could everything be a dream?		My guardian angel
Guarding my heart, (5)	my soul	Suddenly I'm awake
There is a (6) (7)	here	There is no one here all is empty here
She is watching over me		Maybe it's a mistake
Healing my wound, guiding me home		Could everything be a dream?
There is a guardian angel here		Guarding my heart, protecting my soul
She is keeping me alive		There is a guardian angel here
My guardian angel		She is watching over me
I'm looking in the mirror		Healing my wound, guiding me home
I can only see a stranger's face		There is a guardian angel here
Who am I turning into?		She is keeping me alive
Save me now, before it is too late		My guardian angel
Suddenly I'm awake
There is no one here all is empty here
Maybe it's a mistake
