

Fill in the gaps

I know you met the devil once	Do you think you'd (11) want to
When you were young	(12) now?
You let him in	You always were just a stubborn kid back then
Just to know to push away	I saw the (13) that you (14) down
You made it twenty one years	On the back of your book in the room
Before he turned you round	Where we (15) our days
To giving up	I saw the (16) that you wrote down
We (1) knowledge in	On the back of your book in the room
Our (2) of (3) and we	Where we spent our days
partied away	In the (17) (18) we spent our days
And you gave up on everything	I thought I saw your reflection
Do you think you'd still want to (4) now?	In the window of a passing car
You always were just a (5) kid back then	But I (19) I was wrong
I saw the words that you wrote down	All I am is wrong these days
On the back of your book	Do you think you'd still want to (20) now?
In the room where we (6) our days	You always were just a (21) kid
I remember you told me you threw	(22) then
Your father's Jimmy (7) CD	I saw the words (23) you wrote down
Out of the window of his car	On the (24) of your book in the room
It didn't get you very far	Where we spent our days
In his (8) books	I saw the words that you (25) down
Because I know (9) you got home	On the (26) of your book in the room
He bent your spine over	Where we spent our days
The back of a (10) chair
You lost so many days in there
