

Maybe talk to God like

He is there

Fill in the gaps

| Traffic crawls                   | (Oh) I (3) he is there                  |
|----------------------------------|---|
| Cell phone calls                 | Yeah, I know he's there                 |
| Talk radio (1) at m              | ne Hello world                          |
| Through my tinted window I see   | How've you been?                        |
| A little girl                    | Good to see you my old friend           |
| Rust red minivan                 | Sometimes I feel                        |
| She's got                        | As (4) as steel                         |
| Chocolate on her face            | And broken like I'm (5) (6) to heal     |
| Got little hands                 | I see a light                           |
| And she waves at me              | A little grace                          |
| Yeah, she smiles at me           | A little (7) unfurled                   |
| Hello world                      | Hello world                             |
| How've you been?                 | Sometimes I forget what living's for    |
| Good to see you my old friend    | And I hear my (8) through my front door |
| Sometimes I feel                 | And I'll be there                       |
| Cold as steel                    | (Oh) I'm home again                     |
| Broken like I'm never gonna heal | I see my wife                           |
| I see a light                    | My little boy                           |
| A little hope                    | Little girl                             |
| In a little girl                 | Hello world                             |
| Hello world                      | Hello world                             |
| Every day I drive by             | All the empty disappears                |
| A little white church            | I remember why I'm here                 |
| It's got these                   | Just surrender and believe              |
| Little white crosses             | I fall down on my knees                 |
| Like (2) in the yard             | (Oh) hello world                        |
| Maybe I should                   | Hello world                             |
| Stop on in                       | Hello world                             |
| Say a prayer                     |   |
