Tangled Up In Blue (Live) by Bob Dylan

Early one morning, the sun was shinin'	She was working in a topless place
She was layin' in bed	And I stopped in for a beer
Wondering if she'd changed it all	I just (14) looking at the sight of her face
If her (1) was still red	In the (15) so clear
Her folks they said their lives together	And later on when the crowd thinned out
Sure was (2) be rough	I was just about to do the same
They never did like mama's homemade dress	She was (16) there right beside my chair
Papa's bankbook wasn't big enough	Said, "Don't tell me, let me guess your name?"
And he was (3) on the side of the road	I muttered something underneath my breath
Rain falling on my shoes	She studied the (17) on my face
Heading out for the east coast	I must admit I felt a little uneasy
Lord (4) he's paid some dues	When she (18) down to tie the laces of my shoe
Getting through	Tangled up in blue
Tangled up in blue	I lived with them on Montague Street
She was married when they first met	In a basement down the stairs
Soon to be divorced	There was music in the cafes at night
He helped her out of a jam, I guess	And revolution in the air
But he used a little too much force	Then he started (19) dealing with slaves
And they drove that car as far as they could	And (20) inside of him died
Abandoned it out west	She had to (21) everything she owned
Split up on a dark, sad night	And (22) up inside
Both agreeing it was best	And when it all came crashing down
And she turned (5) to (6) at him	I became withdrawn
As he was walking away	The only thing I knew how to do
Saying (7) his shoulder	Was to (23) on keeping on like a bird that flew
"We'll meet again someday on the avenue"	Tangled up in blue
Tangled up in blue	So now I'm (24) (25) again
He had a job in Santa Fe	I got to get her somehow
Working in an old hotel	All the (26) we used to know
But he never did like it all (8) much	They're an illusion to me now
And one day it just went to hell	Some are mathematicians
So he (9) down to New Orleans	Some are carpenter's wives
Lucky not to be destroyed	Don't know how it all got started
Well he got him a job on a fishing boat	I don't what they do with their lives
Right (10) of Delacroix	But me, I'm still on the road
But all the while he was alone	Heading for another joint
The past was (11) behind	We always did feel the same
He seen a lot of women	We just saw it (27) a different point of view
But she never (12) his mind	Tangled up in blue
And he (13) grew
