

Fill in the gaps

Wrapped in a blanket of hope		In a while my flower
Asleep in the bed of dreams		Somewhere in a desert haze
My step (1) eternity		I know one day you'll amaze me
Was not what it might (2) been		2 hearts in the hands of time
Or not at all		Your (7) bleeds into mine
For who knows which way the wind is gonna blow		I'll be with you forever
I'm (3) for your (4)	whisper	And give you (8)	lam
Distant child, my flower		Want you to understand
Are you blowing in the breeze?		It's you and I together
Can you (5) me?		Distant child, my flower
As I breathe life into you		Are you blowing in the breeze?
In a while my flower		Can you feel me?
Somewhere in a desert haze		As I breathe (9) into you
I know one day you'll amaze me		In a while my flower
An act of balancing, imagining		Somewhere in a desert haze
The moment I can be		I know one day you'll amaze me
Looking deep into your eyes		(Distant child, my flower)
For now a mystery		(Are you blowing in the breeze?)
Or not at all		(Can you feel me?)
For who knows which way the wind is gonna blow		(As I (10) life into you)
I'm waiting for your (6) whisper		(In a while my flower)
Distant child, my flower		(Somewhere in a desert haze)
Are you blowing in the breeze?		I know one day you'll amaze me
Can you feel me?
As I breathe life into you
