

Fill in the gaps

I feel so extraordinary	I used to (13) that the day would never come
Something's got a hold on me	I'd see delight in the shade of the (14) sun
I get this feeling, (1) in motion	My morning sun is the drug that (15) me near
A sudden (2) of liberty	To the childhood I lost replaced by fear
I don't care 'cause I'm not there	I used to think that the day would never come
And I don't (3) if I'm here tomorrow	That my (16) would (17) on the
Again and (4) I've taken too much	(18) sun
Of the things that cost you too much	I feel so extraordinary
I used to (5) that the day (6) never	Something's got a hold on me come	I get this feeling, I'm in motion
I'd see delight in the (7) of the morning sun	A sudden sense of liberty
My morning sun is the drug that brings me near	The (19) are we've gone too far
To the childhood I lost replaced by fear	You took my time and you took my money
I used to think that the day would (8) come	Now I fear you've left me standing
That my (9) would (10) on the	In a world that's so demanding morning sun	I (20) to think (21) the day would never
When I was a very small boy	come
Very small boys talked to me	I'd see delight in the shade of the morning sun
Now that we've grown up together	My (22) sun is the (23) that They're afraid of what they see	brings me near
That's the price that we all pay	To the childhood I lost, (24) by fear
Our valued destiny comes to nothing	I used to think that the day would never come
I can't (11) you where we're going	That my life would depend on the morning sun
I guess (12) was just no way of knowing
