Fill in the gaps

There are three words	I want your arms around me and I
That I've been (1) to say to you	Want your lips on mine
Burns in my heart	I wanna say I love you, but
Like a (2) that ain't goin' out	Baby I'm terrified
There are three words	My hands are shaking, my heart is racing
And I want you to know (3) are true	'Cause it's something I can't hide
I need to let you know	It's something I can't deny
I wanna say I love you	So here I go
I wanna hold you tight	Baby I love you
I want your arms around me and I	Take it in, breathe the air
Want (4) lips on mine	What is there to really fear
I wanna say I love you, but	I can't contain, what my heart's saying
Baby I'm terrified	I gotta say it out loud
My hands are shaking, my heart is racing	I wanna say I love you
'Cause it's (5) I can't hide	I wanna hold you tight
It's something I can't deny	I want your arms around me and I
So here I go	Want your lips on mine
Baby I love you	I wanna say I love you, but
I've never said	Baby I'm terrified
These words to anyone, anyone at all	My (10) are shaking, my heart is racing
Never got this close	'Cause it's something I can't hide
'Cause I was always (6) I would fall	It's something I can't deny
But now I know	So here I go
That I'll fall (7) into your arms	Baby I love you
Don't (8) let me go
