All I Want by A Day To Remember

When you think of me?

Fill in the gaps

	All I want is a place to (6) my own
I'm always screaming my lungs out	To mend the hearts of everyone who feels alone
'Til my (1) starts spinning	You know to keep your hopes up high
Playing my songs is the way I cope with life	And your (7) down low
Won't keep my voice down	All I want is a place to call my own
Know the words I speak	To mend the hearts of everyone who feels alone
Are the thoughts I think out loud	You know to keep your hopes up high
I like to keep things honest	And your head down low
I'm a safe bet like your life's staked on it for real	If you take it from me
I'd hate to keep you all wondering	Live your life for yourself
I'm constant (2) the seasons	'Cause when it's all said and done
I will never be forgotten man	You don't need anyone else c'mon
Let's leave no words unspoken	So let's get back to when
And save regrets for the broken	Everything seemed perfect
Will you even look back	Not a worry in the world
When you think of me?	Tell me was this all worth it?
All I want is a place to call my own	I get what I want so everyone's always judging me
To (3) the (4) of everyone who	I'm not afraid of anything
feels alone	And I've got the whole world in front of me
(Whoa)	All I want is a place to call my own
You know to keep your hopes up high	To mend the (8) of everyone who feels alor
And your head down low	You know to keep your hopes up high
Keep your hopes up high and your head down low	And your head down low
Still got something left to prove	All I want is a place to call my own
It tends to keep things movin'	To mend the hearts of everyone who feels alone
While everyone around me says	You know to keep your hopes up high
My (5) days are looming overhead	And your head down low
But just what the hell do they think they know?	Keep your heads down low
I keep my head above the water	Keep your (9) down low
While they drown in the undertow	Keep your hopes up high
Let's leave no words unspoken	Keep your heads (10) low
And save regrets for the broken
Will you even look back
