Losing Grip by Avril Lavigne

Why should I care?
'Cause you weren't there

Fill in the gaps

Are you aware of what you make me feel	When I was scared
Baby	I was so alone
Right now I feel invisible to you	You, you need to listen
Like I'm not real	I'm starting to trip
Didn't you feel me (1) my (2) around	I'm losing my grip
you?	And I'm in (6) thing alone
Why'd you turn away?	Crying out loud
Here's what I (3) to say	I'm crying out loud
I was left to cry there	Crying out loud
Waiting outside there	I'm (7) out loud
Grinning with a lost stare	Open your eyes
That's when I decided	Open up wide
Why should I care?	Why should I care?
'Cause you weren't there	'Cause you weren't there
When I was scared	When I was scared
I was so alone	I was so alone
You, you need to listen	Why (8) I care?
I'm (4) to trip	'Cause you weren't there
I'm losing my grip	When I was scared
And I'm in this thing alone	I was so alone
Am I (5) some chick you placed	Why should I care?
Beside you	If you don't care, then I don't care
To take somebody's place?	We're not (9) anywhere
When you turn around	Why should I care?
Can you recognize my face?	'Cause you weren't there
You used to love me	When I was scared
You used to hug me	I was so alone
But that was in the case	Why should I care?
Everything wasn't okay	If you don't care
I was left to cry there	Then I don't care
Waiting outside there	We're not going anywhere
Grinning with a lost stare
That's when I decided
