Streets Of London by Ralph McTell

Have you seen the old man	So how can you tell me you're lonely
In the (1) down market	And say for you that the sun don't shine
Kicking up the (2) (3) his worn out	Let me take you by hand shoes	And lead you through the streets of London
In his eyes you see no pride	I'll show you something
Hand held loosely at his side	To make you change your mind
Yesterday's (4) telling yesterday's news	Have you seen the old man
So how can you tell me you're lonely	Outside the seaman's mission
And say for you (5) the sun don't shine	Memory fading with
Let me (6) you by the hand	The medal (17) that he wears
And lead you (7) the streets of London	And in our winter (18) the rain cries a little pity
I'll (8) you something	For one more (19) hero
To make you (9) your mind	And a world that doesn't care
Have you seen the old girl
Who walks the streets of London	So how can you (20) me you're lonely
Dirt in her (10) and her clothes in rags	And say for you (21) the sun don't shine
She's no time for talking	Let me take you by the hand
She (11) keeps right on walking	And lead you through the streets of London
Carrying her (12) in two (13)	I'll show you something bags	To make you change (22) mind
So how can you tell me you're lonely
And say for you that the sun don't shine	How can you (23) me you're lonely
Let me take you by the hand	And say for you that the sun don't shine
And lead you (14) the streets of London	Let me take you by the hand
I'll show you something	And lead you through the streets of London
To make you change your mind	I'll (24) you something
In the all night cafe at a quarter past eleven	To make you (25) your mind
Same old man sitting there on his own
Looking at the world over the rim of his tea cup
And each tea (15) an hour
And he (16) home alone
