Over The Hills And Far Away by Gary Moore

They came for him one winter's night.		back in her arms again he'll be.
Arrested, he was bound.		Over the hills and far away.
They said there'd been a robbery,		Over the hills and,
his (1)	had been found.	over the (5) and,
They marched him to the station house,		over the hills and far away.
he waited till the dawn.		Each night within his prison cell,
And as they led him to the dock,		he looks out through the bars.
he knew that he'd been wronged.		He (6) the letters that she wrote.
"You stand accused of robbery,"		One day he'll know the taste of freedom.
he heard the bailiff say.		Over the hills and far away,
He knew without an alibi,		she prays he will return one day.
tomorrow's (2) would mourn his freedom.		As (7) as the rivers reach the seas,
Over the hills and far away,		back in his arms (8) she'll be.
for ten long years he'll count the days.		Over the hills and far away,
Over the mountains and the seas,		he swears he will return one day.
a prisoner's life for him	there'll be.	As (9) as the river (10) the seas,
He knew (3)	it would cost him dear,	back in his arms is where she'll be.
but yet he dare not say.		Over the hills and far away,
Just where he'd been that fateful night,		she prays he will return one day.
a secret it must stay.		As sure as the rivers reach the sea,
He had to fight back tears of rage.		back in her arms is where he'll be.
His (4) beat like a drum.		Over the hills,
For with the wife of his best friend,		over the hills and far away.
he spent his final night of freedom.		Over the hills,
Over the hills and far away,		over the hills and far away.
