And if you remembered me

Fill in the gaps

The way I tend to be by Frank Turner

Some mornings I pray for evening	You could save me from the way I tend to be
For the day to be done	Because I've said I love you so many times
Some summer days I hide away	That the words (11) of die in my mouth
And wait for rain to come	And I meant it each (12)
Because it turns out hell will not be found	With each (13) woman
Within the fires below	But somehow it (14) works out
But in making do and muddling through	But you (15) apart in my calloused heart
When you've nowhere else to go	And you taught me and here's (16) I learned
But then I (1) you	That (17) is about of the changes you make
And the way you shine like truth in all you do	And not just three small words
And if you (2) me	And then I (18) myself
You could (3) me from the way I tend to be	Catching your scent on someone else
The way I tend to be	In a crowded space
Some (4) I wake up dazed, my dear	And it takes me (19)
And I don't (5) where I am	I cannot quite place
I've been (6) now so long I'm scared	And (20) I remember you
I've forgotten how to stand	And the way you (21) like truth in all you do
I stand alone in airport bars	And if you (22) me
And gather (7) to think	You (23) save me from the way I (24)
(8) if all I had was one long road	to be
It could drive a man to drink	The way I tend to be
But (9) I remember you	The way I (25) to be
And the way you (10) like truth in all you do
