Hey ye, hey ye	(14) as simple as rock & roll would
Friends and roman country man	save us all
Hey ye, hey ye	Now who'd had thought, (15) (16) all
Punks and skins and journey man	It was rock & roll
Hey ye, hey ye	I still believe
My sisters and my brother and	-I still believe-
The time is coming near	In the saints
Come ye, come ye	Yes in Jerry Lee and Johnny and all the greats
To sole less corporate circus stops	And I still believe
Come ye, come ye	-I still believe-
To toilet circling (1) stops	In the sound
Come ye, come ye	That has the (17) to raise a (18)
To bedrooms, bars and bunker swots	and tear it down
The sound is ringing clear	And I still believe
Now who'd had thought, that after all	-I still believe-
Something as simple as rock & (2)	In the need
3) save us all	For guitars and drums and desperate poetry
Now who'd of thought, that after all	And I (19) believe
It is rock & roll	-I (20) believe-
Hey ye, hey ye	That everyone
Now anybody could take (4) stage	Can find a song for every (21) they've lost
Hey ye, hey ye	And every time they've won
And make miracles for minimum wage	Just remember folks we're not just saving lives
Hey ye, hey ye	We're (22) souls
These folk (5) of the modern age	We're having fun
Will hold us all in (6) arms	And I still believe
(7) here, (8) now	Now who'd had thought (23) after all
Elvis (9) his (10) home	Something as simple as rock & roll would save us all
Right here, (11) now	Now who'd had thought, that after all
You (12) had to feel alone	Something so simple, something so small
Right here, (13) now	Who'd had thought, after all
Teenage kicks and grammar phones	It's rock & roll
We hold them in our hearts
Now who'd had thought, that after all
