Middle of nowhere by Hot hot heat

| Don't get mad if I'm laughing |
|--|
| Blame the caffeine   |
| for all the 5 am phone calls                               |
| I haven't slept a single night in over a month             |
| And not even (1)   |
| did you start to make sense to me                          |
| Well maybe I'm a little bit slow,                          |
| or just (2) inconsistent                                   |
| She said, "Unpredictability's my responsibility, baby."    |
| But you're (3) at the door                                 |
| where everybody's hanging out                              |
| just like they hung out before                             |
| You didn't have to do it                                   |
| but you did it to say                                      |
| That you didn't have to do it                              |
| but you would anyway                                       |
| To give you something to go on                             |
| when I go off back to the middle of nowhere                |

| They chewed me up  |
| and then they just spit me out                             |
| And I'm not supposed to let it (4) me                      |
| But maybe I'm a little bit weak                            |
| I let my fragilty take the wheel                           |
| She said, "Maybe there's a bit of me                       |
| waiting for a bit of you. baby."                           |
