

I was walking home from school

Fill in the gaps

Just to say I understand

| On a cold winter day | And ain't it kind of funny |
|--|---|
| Took a shortcut through the woods | At the dark end of the road |
| And I lost my way | Someone lights the way |
| It was getting late | With just a single ray of hope |
| And I was scared and alone | (Oh) I believe there are (5) among us |
| But then a precious baby boy | Sent down to us from somewhere up above |
| Took my hand and lend me home | They come to you and me |
| Mama couldn't see him | In our darkest hours |
| (Oh) but he was standing there | To show us how to live |
| And I (1) in my heart | To teach us how to give |
| He was the answer to my prayers | To guide us with the light of love |
| (Oh) I believe there are angels among us | They wear so many faces |
| Sent down to us (2) somewhere up above | Show up in the strangest places |
| They come to you and me | To grace us with their mercy |
| In our darkest hours | In our time of need |
| To show us how to live | (Oh) I (6) there are (7) |
| To teach us how to give | among us |
| To guide us with the light of love | Sent down to us from somewhere up above |
| When life held troubled times | They come to you and me |
| And had me down on my knees | In our darkest hours |
| There's always been someone | To show us how to live |
| To (3) along and comfort me | To (8) us how to give |
| A kind word (4) a stranger | To (9) us with the light of love |
| To lend a helping hand | |
| A phone call from a friend | |
