TEACHER JASON SMITH	It was a shame how he carried on
"Rasputin"	[Spoken:]
There lived a certain man in Russia long ago	But when his (8) and lusting and his
He was big and strong, in his eyes a flaming glow	hunger
Most people (1) at him with terror and with	for power became (9) to more and more people, fear	the demands to do something about this outrageous
But to Moscow chicks he was such a lovely dear	man became louder and louder.
He could preach the bible like a preacher	"This man's just got to go!" declared his enemies
Full of ecstacy and fire	But the ladies begged "Don't you try to do it, please"
But he also was the kind of teacher	No doubt this Rasputin had lots of hidden charms
Women would desire	Though he was a brute they just fell into his arms
RA RA RASPUTIN	Then one night some men of higher standing
Lover of the Russian queen	Set a trap, they're not to blame
There was a cat that really was gone	"Come to visit us" they kept demanding
RA RA RASPUTIN	And he really came
Russia's greatest love machine	RA RA RASPUTIN
It was a shame how he carried on	Lover of the Russian queen
He ruled the (2) land and never mind the	They put some poison into his wine
Czar	RA RA RASPUTIN
But the kasachok he (3) really wunderbar	Russia's greatest love machine
In all affairs of (4) he was the man to please	He drank it all and he said "I feel fine"
But he was (5) great when he had a girl to squeeze	RA RA RASPUTIN
For the queen he was no wheeler dealer	Lover of the Russian queen
Though she'd heard the things he'd done	They didn't quit, they wanted his head
She (6) he was a holy healer	RA RA RASPUTIN
Who would heal her son	Russia's greatest love machine
RA RA RASPUTIN	And so they shot him till he was dead
Lover of the Russian queen	[Spoken:] Oh, those Russians
There was a cat that really was gone
RA RA RASPUTIN
